NINETEEN TWENTY-FIVE

FOREWORD

We have accomplished our purpose, if in the years to come, the EL-SO-HI Annual recalls to the minds of its readers some long-forgotten friend or pleasant episode of school life at S. H. S.

The Staff

To Mr. Frank M. Edson,

who has given unceasing interest in the Class of 1925,

this annual is respectfully dedicated

We, the Class of 1925, wish to express our appreciation in the unparalleled interest that
Miss Mabel I. Haupt has shown us

THE SPIRIT OF THE SOUTHSIDE HIGH

By Frederick Surprenant

"I am a spirit that is young, that will always be young; in fact, young long after you have left me. Yet it is you who will make or break me, for I am the Spirit of your school, your Southside High.

"I am ambitious: I aspire to heights far above the realm of ordinary passage, yet it is you who guide me. As your will fluctuates, so shall I.

"I am loyal, faithful to the trust of those who made me and my abode, who placed in my hands the shaping of the destiny of many, the minds of the young. I am faithful—if you are faithful, too.

"I am cheerful, ready to help, willing to give. The defects, the obstacles, to progress and understanding I shall surmount—but you must help me.

"I am efficient: my tasks I do today. I do not leave them for tomorrow, for tomorrow may never come. I see my job and tackle it: I fight to a finish: I strive and succeed—but only when you are with me.

"I am kind: I give a helping hand to those who need it; I do not sneer nor laugh at the mistakes of others, for mockery is the death of many a struggling soul. I help others. That helps me.

"Cooperation is my law. I'll fight with you—or not at all—and I will lift Right onto the throne of Might. My zeal shall not be stayed. Nay! my enthusiasm will heed no bounds till my task is done.

"I am grateful for the help of others, for favors received. I show my gratitude to others and help them over the rough spots I have trod.

"And last, but not least, I revere the law. I acknowledge authority and I bow to those who in the paths of righteous knowledge strive to lead me, for I am the spirit of a noble school, good, kind, industrious, cheerful, honorable. I shall attain the heights, but I follow. You must lead."

CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1921 we entered the Elmira Free Academy as green a mob of freshmen as ever wandered down its aged halls. Then came a time when we were informed that "The September Freshmen will report in the auditorium at 3:45 for the election of officers." Well, in we went and chose Wilfred J. Booth, Jr., president. Later we presented a play "The Three Who Pass While The Lentels Boil." Weren't we great then? But wait until you recall our Sophomore year. John Henry Way was president. As Juniors we returned for our last year at E. F. A. We elected John Cop.ey president.

Then came January 28 with its historic moving to our new home, Southside High. We were the first class to organize. Our officers were: William M. French, president; Dorothy Durell, vice president; Leonella Schaad, secretary; George Enyedy, treasurer; Miss Henrichon, Patron Saint. Later Mary Catherine Daly was elected to succeed Miss Durrell, resigned.

Seniors! The first class to be graduated from Southside! That was our chant upon coming here for our first full year. During the first week, we set a precedent by organizing early under a very capable group of officers. Charles Ruggles won the presidency and Betty Sherman the vice-presidency. Thomas McCarthy was chosen treasurer; Bertha Weser, secretary and Miss Haupt, Patron Saint. When "Tom" resigned to become business manager of the El-So-Hi Annual, Walter Watkins was named to succeed him.

During the last few days of our third year, a flag pole was ordered by the class and placed during our senior year with fitting ceremonies. Mr. Edson, in accepting the pole for the school, stated he hoped that each senior would be like it, standing staunch and upright for things that are wholesome and true in the years to come.

On October 31 we had our first social activity in the form of a Hallowe'en Dance. Not only was it unique in that it was the first dance ever held in Southside, but also because of the fine conduct. The class put on a profitable minstrel show in November with the aid of the faculty and the student body. Many outsiders thought that this would be just another school affair, but nearly everyone remarked that it was actually a finished product.

But February 23 was the great dancing affair — our first annual Senior "Prom!" It was a real success in all respects, socially and financially.

Joint Will of Class of 1925 — Southside High School, Elmira, N. Y.

Know all men by these presents, that we — the class of 1925 of the Southside High School, in the City of Elmira, of the County of Chemung, of the State of New York — being of awful age and of solid mind and poor memory, do make, publish and declare this instrument to be jointly, as well as severally, our last will and testament, hereby revoking former wills.

1. All just debts and funeral expenses shall be duly and fully paid.
2. Upon our departure it is our desire that our property shall be divided as follows:

SECTION I

1. To Southside: All our cherished traditions and one summer to recuperate from the rushing gusto with which we accomplished our aims and formed those traditions.
2. To the Eleventh Year: We will only the title of Seniors, which in itself is sufficient.
3. To the Tenth Year: The task of restraining the Seniors.

SECTION II

1. To Mr. Edson: Many more happy birthdays at Southside and another Senior Class as good as '25.
2. To Mr. McNaught: A demure manner and a still smaller voice.
3. To Mr. McEwan: A kiddy car to make those corridor marathons easier.
4. To Mr. Williamson: Martial Bliss.
5. To Miss Haupt: A home in Heaven.
6. To Miss Grube: Another El-So-Hi Annual.
7. To Miss Clearwater: A sunny Wedding Day.
8. To Miss Stacy: A quiet study hall, fifth period.
9. To Miss Brookfield: The nerve to say "Hot Dog!"
10. To Mr. Marcy: A new lease on his perpetual smile, and his fill of egg sandwiches and hot coffee.
11. To Miss Callahan: A Senior Play Cast that likes to "get down to business" at practice.
12. To Mr. Tschudy: Golden curly hair.
13. To Miss LaBurt: A correspondence course in "How to frown."
14. To Mrs. Austin: A "comp" to the burlesque.
15. To Mrs. Short: Lots of speed.
16. To Mr. Zeller (Tessie): A new dress.
17. To Mrs. Goodwin: A baton.
18. To Mr. Lavigne: What's left of the Senior Class funds.
19. To Mr. Benedict: Freedom from work.
20. To Miss O'Connor: All our cotton stockings.
21. To Miss Henrichon: A man.

22. To Mr. Bement: A stiff upper lip.
23. To Miss King: Someone for whom to cook.
24. To Mr. Hall: Some age.
25. To Mr. Parsons: A teething ring.
26. To Mr. Sharpe: A class that won't let Carbon disulphide gas escape.

SECTION III

1. To Mary Granger: A few nineties.
2. To "Slim" Elliot:: More cigarettes to stunt his growth.
3. To Arlene Antes: Some size.
4. To Edward Dombrowski: Nummy Painton's good looks.
5. To Elaine Feese: A date with a football player.
6. To Alden Danks: Another E (and a ticket to Brooklyn).
7. To Bernard Hardiman: Senior Class presidency.
8. To Doris Hicks: Betty Sherman's popularity.
9. To Ralph Enyedy: George's place at Southside.
10. To "Bud" Towner: A new "sugar."
11. To Luella Waid: Dates! Dates! Dates!
12. To Francis McCarthy: Some freckle cream.
13. To "Art" McNamara: "Bill" French's good marks.
14. To "Bob" Thrasher: "Lawrie" Sides love of nonsense.
15. To Tim Connelly: Another year at Southside.
16. To Ruth Hebbe: Luck with out-of-town fellows.
17. To "Lawrie" Hobler: Ruth.
18. To Ruth Newell: "Lawrie."
19. To Catherine Crowe: More keen clothes.
20. To Donald Butters: An alarm clock.
21. To Bernice Gorman: Someone with whom to flirt.
22. To Francis Nelson: A little-girl lisp.
23. To Martha Vallely: Some nerve.
24. To Louise Smith: Long tresses.
25. To Arlene Phillips: A big fellow.
26. To Catherine Conklin: Prominence.

SECTION IV

1. To Mr. Lane and his staff: Some students who are naturally neat.
2. To the ladies of the Cafeteria: Our everlasting thanks.
3. To the "El-So-Hi:" Our last nickle.
4. To the Parent-Teachers' Association: Patience.

We desire that all Regents Exam. papers be cremated and the ashes deposited in the flag pole plot.

II.

And we hereby appoint Santa Claus sole guardian and trustee of our infant children, The Eleventh year and Tenth Year, during their respective minorities.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hand this fifth day of June, 1925.

Class of 1925

Signed by the said testators by their direction and in the presence of us, who at their request and in their presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

UNDA GRADUATE PEDA GOG.

Class Song

You may talk about your classes of the ages long gone past;
Of their courage, vim, and vigor, preseverence 'till the last;
But, old chap, just look us over, and all records, we do fear,
Will be broken by this class, so give a cheer.

Chorus—

So cheer them one, and cheer them all,
Students staunch and true,
They have heard their high school's call,
They have shown their will to do,
They have honored twenty-five,
This class so full of fun and cheer,
They have shown that they're alive,
So, cheer that all the world may learn.

CHARLES RUGGLES.

His-to-ry Of The Jun-ior High.

These are some good lit-tle boys and girls. There names are Ed-ward, Al-bert, Flor-ence and many others; I cannot wait to tell you. They all go to school in the big, new, South-side High School.

Some Called them Jun-iors, but what they lack-ed in salt they made up in brass. They some-times had class par-ties.

Once their lead-er was up before the dis-ci-pline com-mit-tee, but he said he made them cringe.

These good child-ren will grad-u-ate some-day and en-ter Sen-ior High. They will all be so glad.

We hope all who read this will learn from it to be good and gen-tle, but never sub-mit to un-just and cru-el tyr-an-ny.

SENIOR PLAY

April 24 and 25 the Senior class successfully presented to the school and its friends Booth Tarkington's most humorous play, "Clarence." The leading roles of 'Clarence," "Miss Pinny," "Bobby" and "Cora" were efficiently acted by Earle Ridall, Mary Catherine Daly, Ward Crane and Margaret Fonda respectively. The parts of Mr. and Mrs. "Wheeler" were ably interpreted by Manley Thompson and Gwendolyn Hughes. The part of "Mrs. Martyn" was portrayed by Florence Burt. The characters "Dinwiddie" and "Della" were cleverly acted by William French and Cleall Harris while Norman Painton put across the part of Mr. Stem.

The Players

Mrs. Martyn .....Florence Burt
Mr. Wheeler .....Manley Thompson
Mrs. Wheeler ..... Gwendolyn Hughes
Bobby Wheeler ..... Ward Crane
Cora Wheeler .....Margaret Fonda
Violet Pinney .....Mary Catherine Daly
Clarence .....Earl Ridall
Della .....Cleall Harris
Dinwiddie ..... William French
Hubert Stem .....Norman Painton

The Scenes

ACT I—The anteroom to Mr. Wheeler's private office, New York City.
ACT II—Living room of Mr. Wheeler's home, Englewood, N. J.
ACT III—The same. That evening.
ACT IV—The same. Next morning.

SENIOR PROM

Monday, February 23, the Senior Class put over one of the best social events of the year, the first Annual Senior Prom. Two hundred and seventy-six persons attended, not including chaperones and guests.

The success of the affair was due to the entire school, not just a group alone nor even the class.

When planning the dance, the Seniors desired a pleasurable evening, and not a money making proposition. It was indeed gratifying when we learned that only a small sum had to be taken from the treasury.

The gymnasium was be-decked in gala attire of crimson and gray, the class colors. In fact, we had never before seen the gymnasium look so inviting.

SENIOR MINSTRELS

In the Southside auditorium, Friday and Saturday nights, November 21 and 22, lively minstrels were staged under the auspices of the Senior Class of '25. Ivan Soper was general chairman. As interlocutor, Jack Miller ably filled the part. Timothy Connelly, Joseph Vail, Laurence Sides, Richard Killey, Grant Meeker and Harold Loop were the end men.

Part I consisted of songs and jokes. Miss Haupt, Mr. Bement and Mr. John Fletcher Hall were the directors.

Part II was put on by the Junior Department, "The Players" and the male faculty. Old Plantation Days, a skit presented by the Junior Department was directed by Miss Cronin and Mrs. Goodwin. The Juniors also danced a delightful minuet under the supervision of Miss O'Connor. "He Who Hesitates," a play by the dramatic society was put on under the direction of Miss Callahan. A man faculty skit, "See Yourself as Others See You" was under the direction of Mr. McNaught.

The minstrels netted nearly nine hundred dollars profit for the Senior treasury.

FIRST SENIOR DANCE

On Friday, October 31, the first dance ever given at Southside High was staged under the auspices of the class of 1925. Both financially and socially the affair was a great success.

The gymnasium was appropriately decorated in orange and black to correspond to the season, Hallow'een. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria, the first time it was used by the pupils.

Jack Miller was general chairman. Music was furnished by the Collegiate Club orchestra.

FLAG RAISING

For many years we will remember the impressive ceremony held October 24, when the national colors were raised for the first time at Southside High. The first part of the exercises was held in the school auditorium, after which the entire student body marched out to see the actual flag raising.

Major Robert P. McDowell was the speaker for the occasion. Charles Ruggles presented the pole to the school on behalf of the class. In accepting the gift, Mr. Edson stated that he hoped that each senior would be like the flag pole, standing staunch and upright for the things that are wholesome and true in the years to come.

Many guests of honor were present, including Mayor Wood, Superintendent of Schools Hutchinson and delegations from the American Legion and the Grand Army of the Republic.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Above all other ideals Southside prides herself upon her spirit of democracy which permeates all her activities. The equal opportunity to prove his worth is the birth-right of every student who enters Southside High.

The Student Council is the governmental expression of this out-standing spirit of democracy. The president is elected late in the spring by the student body. The other officers are chosen by the Council from that body at the first regular meeting of the school year.

All assemblies, which are conducted by the Council, have proved most enjoyable not only to the students, but also to our many visitors. Incidentally, much talent along various lines has been brought forth which otherwise might have remained unknown.

Much credit goes to Mr. Edson, the faculty adviser, for the success of the Council and the democratic body that exists.

The society has been ably directed by:

Philip Thrasher .....President
Richard Killey .....Vice-President
Catherine Conklin .....Secretary
Arthur Parsons .....Treasurer
William French .....Publicity Manager

THE EL-SO-HI

The initial attempt at publishing a newspaper began on September 2, when the first issue of the El-So-Hi was sold on the opening day of school.

Since then the paper has grown by leaps and bounds until now it is one of the best in the State. At the Eastern Interscholastic Publications Convention at Ithaca in November, El-So-Hi won third place—and that after only three month's experience!

There were nineteen numbers issued by this year's staff, featuring all the news of the school. Several times news was scooped by the El-So-Hi before other city papers received it.

William French is editor-in-chief and Ann McCarty is associate editor. Under these efficient heads and by the untiring efforts of Miss Haupt, the adviser, the paper has without difficulty taken its place among the other school papers of the country.

THE ORCHESTRA

Southside can boast of many fine organizations but there is none finer than the school orchestra. The school assembly committee fully realized the value of the orchestra and requested them to give a concert number each assembly aside from the marches and songs. It is a well known fact that the orchestra has continued to live up to its name ever since its debut. Not only does the school praise the organization but many strangers and visitors have commended it most highly.

A large share of the orchestra's success is due to its director, Gywnn Bement. We may truthfully quote what everyone has said that, "He has made professionals out of his amateurs."

MELOPEA

This ambitious club has done a great deal toward forwarding interest in music at the Southside.

During the year, "Melopea" has given short musical programs nearly every Friday afternoon in which the club has proved itself truly musical.

The competent officers are: Marjorie Seeley, president; Margaret Powers, vice-president; Virginia Brooks, secretary; and Henry Davidson, treasurer.

SO-HI-TRI

The So-Hi-Tri, the newest organization for girls at Southside High, is composed of twenty-six girls. These girls have the following officers:

President	Kathryn Force
Vice-President	Lucy Phelps
Secretary	Frances Decker
Treasurer	Ruth Decker
Advisor	Elizabeth S. Gill

Miss Gill is from Elmira College and proves a great aid to the girls. So-Hi-Tri has been helpful not only to the school, but to the community. They have enjoyed picnics, hikes and parties and are now planning to send delegates to a convention in Pennsylvania.

GIRLS' CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Girls' Chamber of Commerce meets every Tuesday night in Room 206 to study opportunities for young business women in Elmira and to give the members broader views of the world's work.

This club owes its success to:

Bertha Weser	President
Ruth Shelansky	Vice-President
Margaret Fonda	Secretary
Lucille Knight	Treasurer

Miss Cole and Mrs. Short, the faculty advisers, have worked faithfully throughout the year to aid the girls.

Miss Manigal, Miss Denton, Mrs. Hamilton and Mr. Coykendall have addressed the club during the year. They reiterated the various opportunities for the girls and encouraged them to do their best in making a success of their future positions.

The Club made an educational visit to the Second National Bank, Booth's Candy Factory, the Post Office, C. & K. Laundry, the Reformatory, and the Sales Book Company.

1925 has been a successful year for the G. C. C.

ACHIEVEMENT CLUB

The Achievement Club is a Junior project work and is in cooperation with the United States Government and Cornell University. It is open to all students in the school, the present membership in the Southside High being 150.

The objects are: Character development, cooperation, coordination of school and home, profitable use of leisure, and ability to do the every day things better.

SCHOOL SPIRIT SOCIETY

The S. S. S., now in its first year at Southside High, has helped to promote school spirit. Much of its remarkable success is due to its adviser, Miss Cole. Regular meetings are held every Wednesday after school under the leadership of Bernice Spellecy.

During the football season the members helped the sale of the season tickets. Do you remember seeing them at the gate every Saturday? Then to boost scholarship, many of the members tutored students in English grammar. Do they help other societies? Do they? They donated fifteen dollars to the senior class as a foundation on which to begin the year.

The able leaders of this society are:

President	Bernice Spellecy
Vice-President	Leonella Schaad
Treasurer	Lucy Phelps
Secretary	Iva Lilley

GIRLS' SWIMMING CLUB

The girls' swimming club, organized this year, has progressed, as we expected, swimmingly. Two classes, advanced and beginning, meet every Tuesday at the Federation Building to study all phases of swimming. The officers, advised by Miss O'Connor and Miss McDonald, and instructed by Miss Riley, are: Margaret Baxter, President; Florence Clemens, vice-president; Ruth Hebbe, secretary; Mary Buchan, E. F. A. treasurer; Violet Moffat, S. H. S. treasurer.

ECCLESIA

What is the matter with Ecclesia? Its all right! What with its many spreads, its lively, noisy initiation, its get-together parties, those and various other social functions, it has rapidly come to the front and has commanded the notice and respect of all Southside High.

This club meets every Monday at four o'clock in room 210. The purpose of this club and these meetings is to study parliamentary procedure and the technique of debating. It's officers this year are:

Norma Rice	President
Bernice Spellacy	Vice-President
Grace Watkins	Secretary
Leonella Schaad	Treasurer
Thelma Coleman	Sergeant-at-Arms
Dorothy Vaughn	Critic
Miss Ruby Smith	Adviser

RADIO CLUB

OFFICERS

S. Dullin Trescott	President
Harold W. Hudson	Vice-President
Guy R. Aber	Secretary
Daniel Sheehan	Treasurer
Albert Fudge	Sargeant-at-Arms

The Radio Club has proved a great success and a benefit to Southside. Many pleasant Thursday evenings have been spent in listening over the radio to the various broad casting stations. With Mr. Parsons and Mr. Sharpe advising and assisting at all times, the boys have keen anticipations for the future.

THE PLAYERS

The dramatic organization of Southside High is known as "The Players." "Les Jouers" was the name first chosen, but the members preferred to be known by the English version.

Two short plays have been given: "He Who Hesitates" and "Wurzel Flummery." The former was presented at the Senior Minstrels and was a huge success; the latter was given in the auditorium one night after school and again before a parent-teachers' meeting. It, also, proved a success.

The officers are:

Norman Painton	President
Dorothea Abbott	Vice-President
Julia Shultz	Secretary
Catherine Conklin	Treasurer
John Miller	Sargeant-at-Arms

These well-chosen officers were helped at all times by Miss Callahan, their adviser.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

One of the recently organized clubs at Southside High is the traffic squad. The excellent order of the students when passing to and from assembly is due to a very great extent to the faithfulness of this squad. It is composed of the following boys: W. Burt, R. Christian, G. Cullen, D. Emblen, B. Feese, R. Killey, W. Kline, R. Lofstrom, L. Mathern, D. Nugent, J. O'Brien, L. Sides, J. Storm, W. Watkins; with Richard Killey, president; Lynn Mathern, vice-president; Jack Storm, secretary; Laurence Sides, treasurer; and Mr. McEwan, advisor.

SENATE

The boys debating society of Southside was organized the first Tuesday in October for the purpose of studying the fine art of debating. During the year the society has risen from small numbers to a membership of about thirty-five active fellows.

Besides their many practice debates, formal contests were held early in the spring with Ithaca and Cortland. Working plans are being made to make Southside known in debating circles from now on.

The Senate dance with Jack Miller, general chairman, held December twelfth was a great success. The society also held dances Wednesday evenings after school during the month of January. With an active group of undergraduates to carry on the work, Southside expects much of the Senate.

President	John Kennedy
Vice-President	Bernard Hardiman
Secretary	Robert Campbell
Treasurer	John Miller

Faculty Advisers—Alfred Zeller, Harold Marcy

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 19 of the Girl Scouts of America was formed in the school with Miss Brookfield as advisor; Nellie Arnot, secretary; Pearl Good, treasurer. Meetings were held every Thursday in the practice house.

LE PROGRES

One of the most entertaining and educational organizations of Southside High is Le Progres, the French Club. It is in its first year and was formed to further the study of the French language and customs.

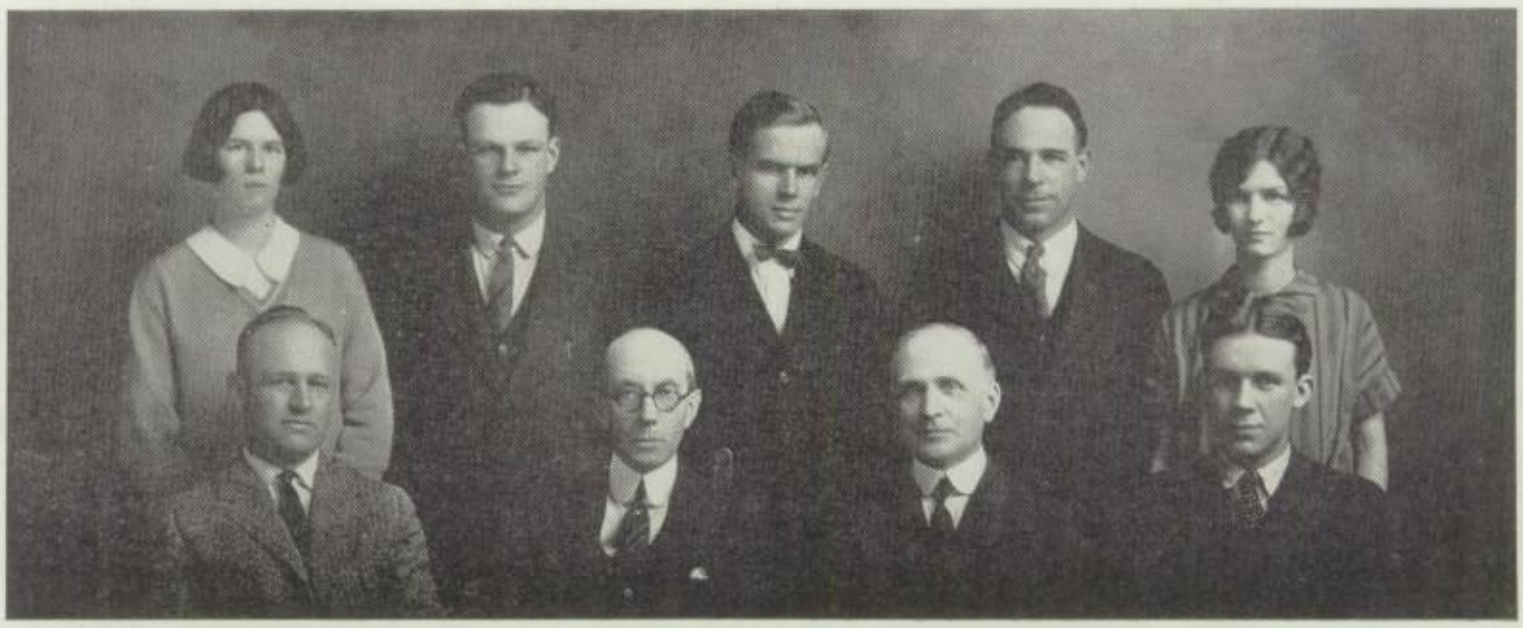
Under the following leaders the club has proved a success:

Gladys Bohn	President
Elizabeth Sherman	Vice-President
Ann McCarty	Secretary
Welling Burt	Treasurer
Bernice Spellecy	Sergeant-at-Arms

Advisers — Miss Brookfield, Miss Henrichon

ATHLETICS

— B. Hardiman '25



ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Athletic Council was composed, this year, of Mr. Hutchinson Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Hirst, Athletic Director, and Principals Edson and Parker, one faculty member and two student representatives from each of our high schools, E.F. A. and S. H. S. The following officers were elected:

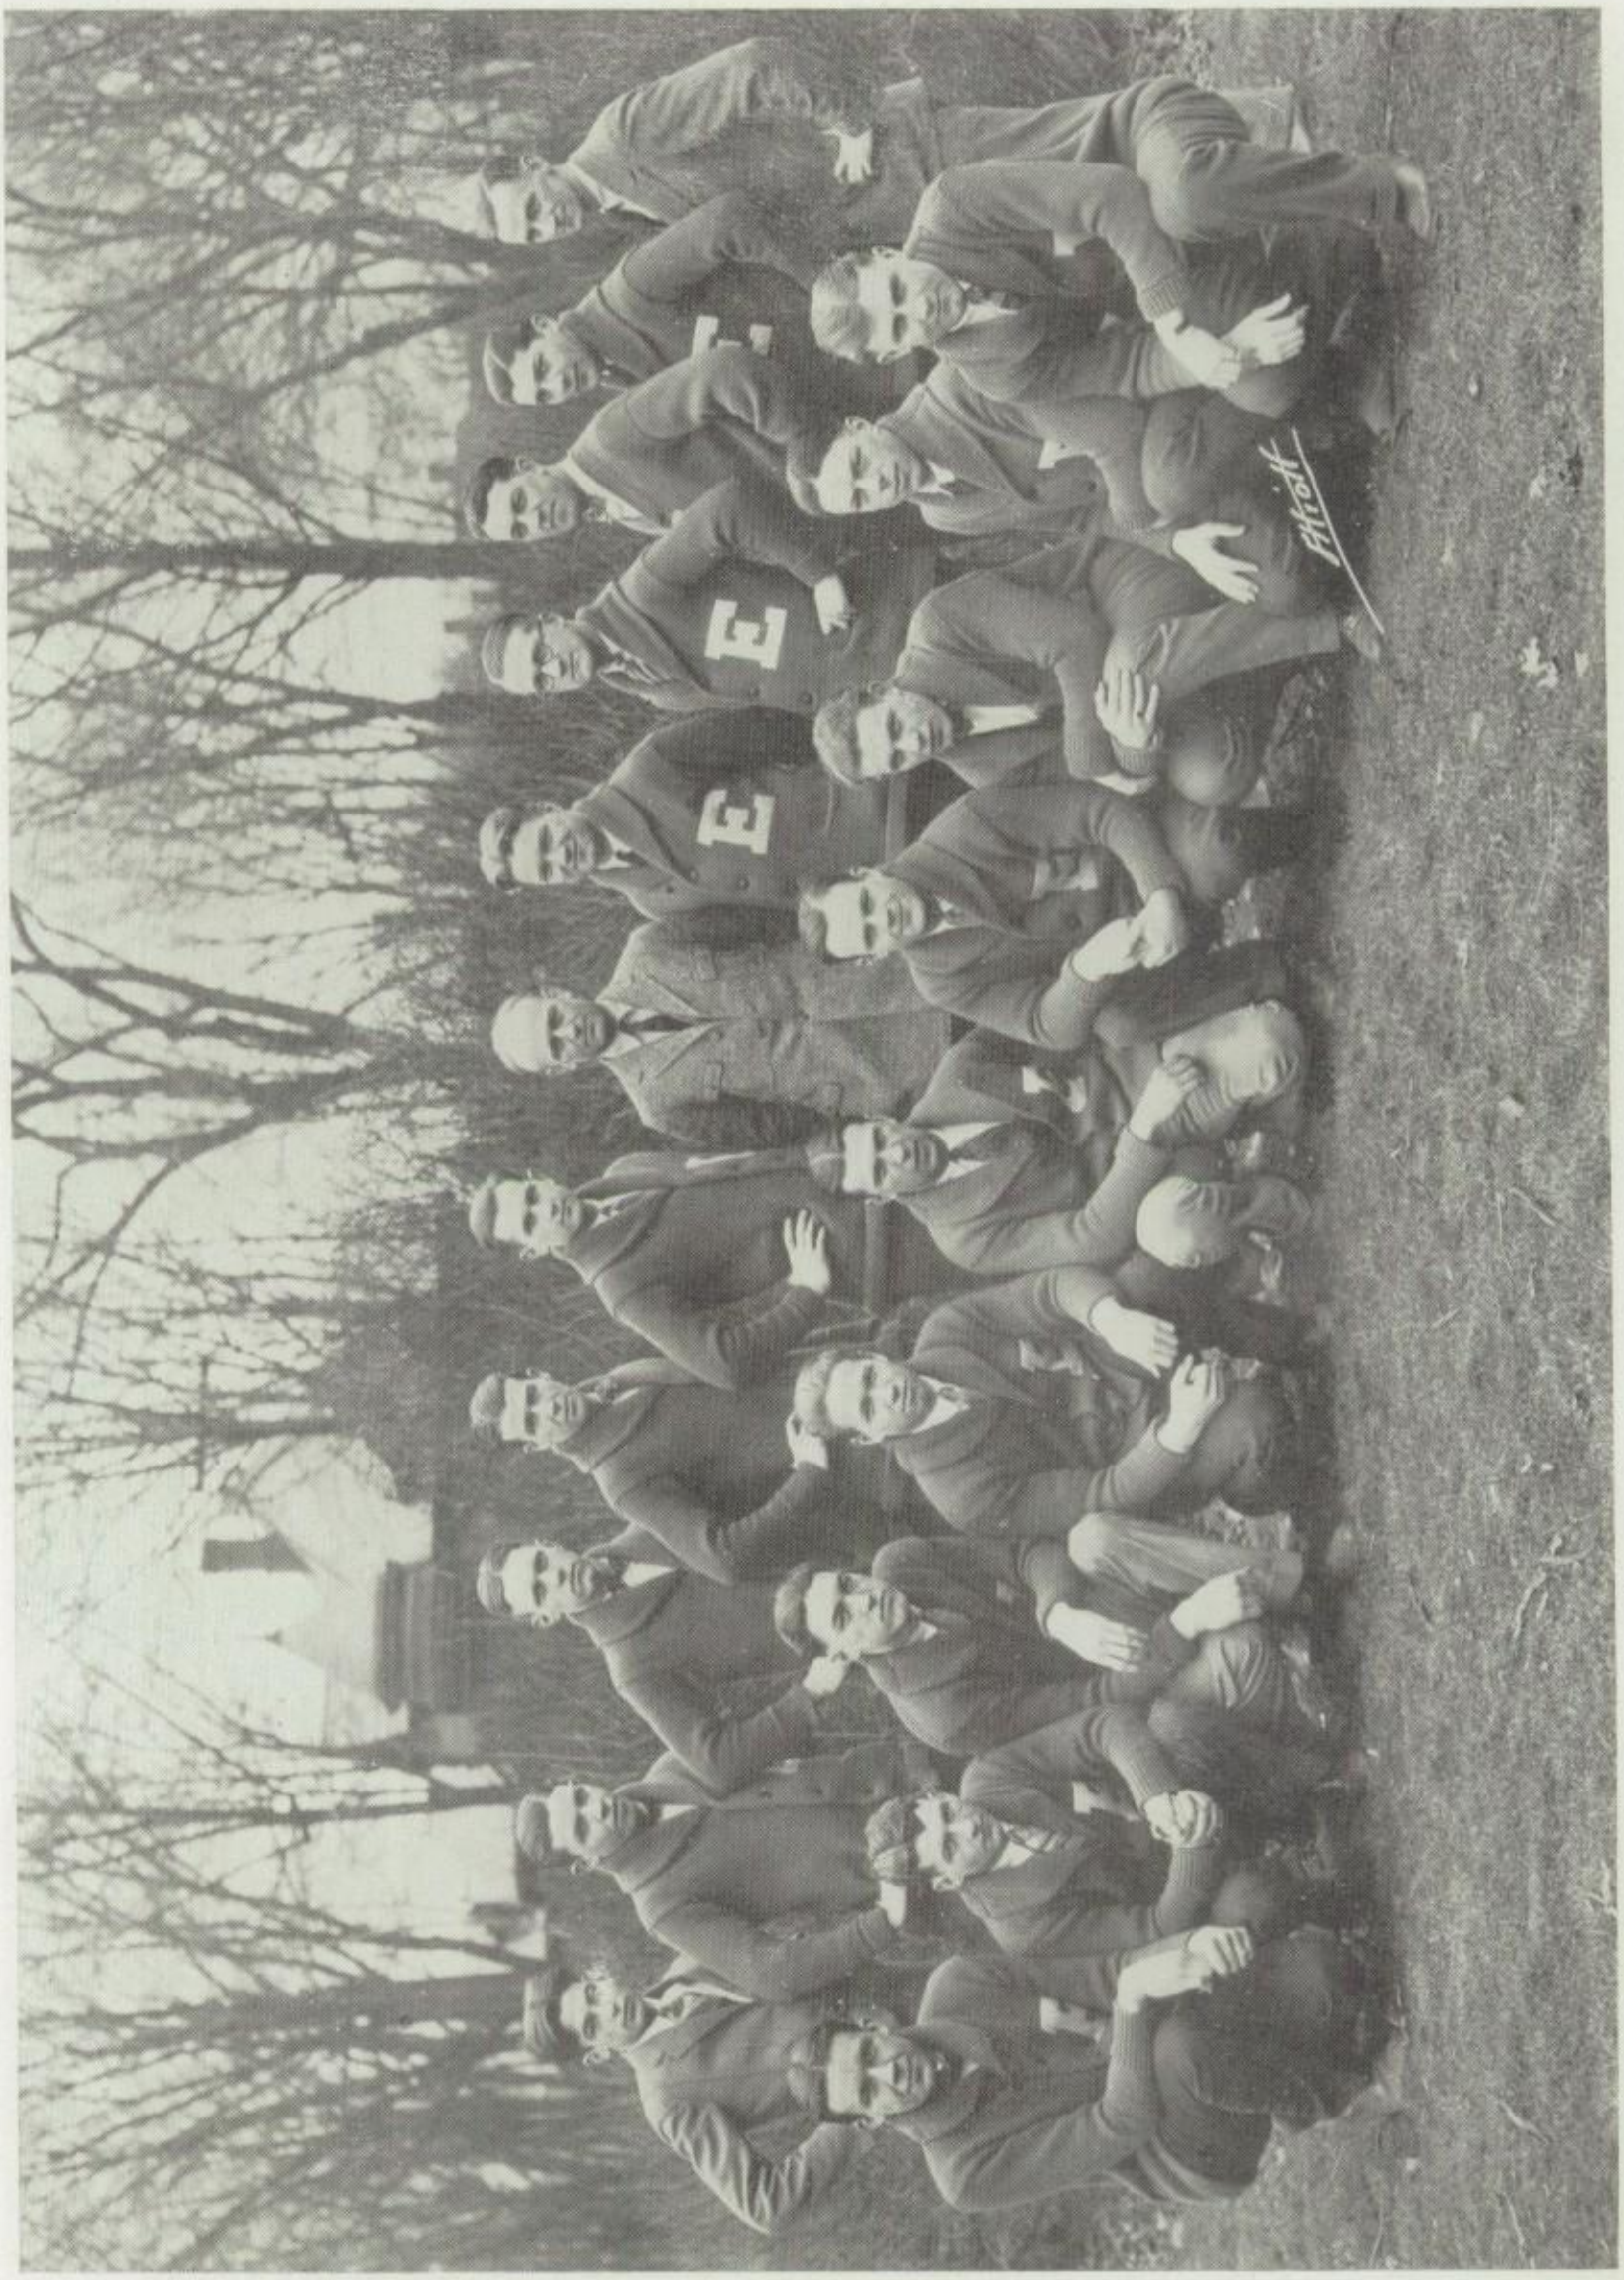
President, Mr. H. O. Hutchinson, Superintendent of Schools
Vice-President, Mr. F. R. Parker, Principal of E. F. A.
Secretary, Mr. F. M. Edson, Principal of S. H. S.
Treasurer, Mr. R. Austin, E. F. A. Faculty
Asst. Treasurer, Mr. Precthl, S. H. S. Faculty

This important mentor of athletics in Elmira High Schools has met twice a month throughout the year and has worked rather unobtrusively with diligence and success. All thanks for careful handling of money and tickets throughout football, baseball, and basketball seasons, for arranging suitable schedules, for properly equipping the teams is due this organization. We wish to acknowledge what they have done and to thank them in this, the only way we can.

CROSS COUNTRY—1924

Under the coaching of Mr. Adams and with George Ferris as captain the cross country team was very successful. At the sectional meet at Alfred University, they came in fourth and at the Cornell state meet, sixth. They tied Binghamton 27½ to 27½.

Sectional Meet	State Meet
Hanchet, 3rd.	Hanchett, 6th.
Ferris, 12th.	Ferris, 27th.
Williamson, 21st.
Killey, 23rd.
Gilbert, 25th.
Kennedy, 28th.



FOOTBALL SEASON—1924

Three cheers for football and Arthur Hirst! We had a good team this year of which we are duly proud. We were not champions, but championship every year would not be a good thing for the team or the students.

We were highly honored when "Bud" Towner, capable captain, was selected as left-end on the first all state team. At the end of the season, Earle Ridall was wisely chosen as next year's captain.

BASKETBALL 1924—1925

The E. H. S. basketball quintet, under Captain DeFilippo's and Coach Hirst's direction, successfully conquered all its opponents this year. Besides defeating all of the strong league teams, they continued the good work by winning four outside games.

After the successful sectional games the team entered the state tournament, but it did not play true to form. However, they were eliminated only by a score of 29 to 23. An extra five minute period was necessary to break the tie at the end of the fourth quarter.

TRACK—1924

R. DeFilippo, Captain — O. Adams, Coach

The season opened with a dual meet with Bingo which the Parlor City captured 58-46, after the keenest kind of competition in every event.

The Sectional Meet, held at Cornell, was our next appearance, Elmira taking first place by two points over Cortland, with Ithaca and Corning following in the order named. This victory gave us championship of the Finger Lakes region.

The last meet was the State Championships, also held at Cornell, in which Harry Shulman won fourth in the 220 yard dash, our relay team being nosed out in the semi-finals by Rochester East High and Buffalo.

The outstanding point-earners for the season were Shulman, DeFilippo, Watkins, Ferris, Williamson, P. Thrasher, Killey, Habeck, Seafuse, and Gilbert. The outlook for 1925 is extremely promising with all the regulars back except DeFilippo.

BASEBALL—1924

Anthony Frisk, Captain — Jack Bartlett, Manager
Archie Hall, Coach

The baseball team last year played a hard twelve game schedule. They won eight of these and lost three by one run.

BASEBALL—1925

Gerald Dempsey, Captain — Arthur Parsons, Manager
Archie Hall, Coach

This year's team has only reached the "call for candidates" stage, but many of last year's stars will form the nucleus of the team. The schedule is fully made out and the team expects to vanquish all comers. The games this year will be played in the new athletic field.

A B C'S AT SOUTHSIDE HIGH

S Is for Social affairs and for Spring,
for Seniors and Sophomores and Songs that we Sing.
P Is for Parties, not Petting—Oh no!
They're held in the gym and they never are slow.
E Is for Educate, Sounds good enough;
But Dad with the bills finds the price pretty tough.
A Is for Athletes, so great and so tall,
For these crippled heroes the girls surely fall.
K Is for Knockers—we've chased them all out.
So everything left is O. K., without doubt.
I Stands for Ignorance,—as they say,—bliss;
We are certainly blessed with abundance of this.
N Is for Nothing, that popular game.
That's played with great gusto by studes wild or tame.
G Is for Graduate, Goal of our strife,
We'll reach it, of course,—but, Oh! What a life!

O Spells Opportunity, toward you she'll roam,
Don't let her discover there's—Nobody Home.
F Is for Friends, good Fellows, and Jolly,
For Fashions we Follow, for Fools, and for Folly.

S Is for Sheiks, of all kinds and types
With their smiles, and their "line," and their cute little pipes.
O Is for something not mentioned, you know.
We get them sometimes when our work's going slow.
U Is for Unity, each works for all
The thin for the fat and the short for the tall.
T Is for Tests—daily, weekly, and yearly,
And also for Teachers we all love so dearly.
H Is for Hustle, we rush all the while
For to move slowly is never the style.
S Stands for Solos, and slow Syncopations,
Music's our Specialty, all variations.
I Is for Indorsement of all at Southside,
You can't find a better school, look far and wide.
D Stands for Dentist, gold teeth are the rage,
That excuse is still good if there's something in age.
E Is for Edson—give him The Nine!
And at last, gentle reader, here's the End of this line.
